

Middle School Success Emporium

Tuesday, June 22, 2010

8:30 AM – 4:00 PM

TIES Building

1667 Snelling Avenue North

St. Paul, MN 55108

Much has been written about middle school redesign and many middle school educators have been actively engaged in middle school redesign work. There are many success stories to share.

Now is the time to make plans to join with educators from other middle schools to explore middle school redesign initiatives shared by middle school educators. Middle schools currently scheduled to share their success stories include:

New London-Spicer Middle School: Breaking Ranks in the Middle, A Practical Approach

Oak Grove Middle School, Bloomington: Professional Learning Communities at the Middle Level

Olson Middle School, Bloomington: Implementing a STEM Way of Thinking

Pioneer Ridge Middle School, Chaska: A New View from the Middle

Roseville Area Middle School: Risk Takers on the Move

Valley View Middle School, Bloomington: A Renaissance

Westwood Middle School, Spring Lake Park: Maximizing the Middle

FACILITATORS: Educators from Minnesota middle schools.

INTENDED AUDIENCE: This workshop is designed for middle school teacher leaders, middle school principals/assistant principals, and middle school teachers engaged in middle school redesign initiatives.

*The Middle School Success Emporium is sponsored by the:
The Minnesota Middle School Association (MMSA) and the Minnesota Association of Secondary School Principals (MASSP)
In partnership with*
